

Letters from Mr. Oles Ernest Co,
1. Miss G. Weston, 1832.

THE NINETEENTH NATIONAL ANTI-SLAVERY BAZAAR, HORTICULTURAL HALL, SCHOOL STREET,

Will open on WEDNESDAY, Dec. 23d, at 10 A. M. On no previous year has the collection of articles been so large, varied, or elegant. It includes every description of Ladies' work, and an unprecedented variety of objects of taste and art. Among so much that is attractive it is difficult to make a judicious selection, but we would enumerate the following as worthy of attention. Honiton Lace of great elegance. A very great variety of Tidyies and Chair Covers, in new patterns. Scotch Shawls of different styles. Splendid Camp Stools and Footstools, presented by Lady Buxton. Very large and magnificent Table Cover. Embroidered Carriage Bags and Toilet Cushions, Drawing Room Cushions in many different styles. Afghan Blankets. Ladies' Embroidered Handkerchiefs. Elegantly Embroidered Slippers and Invalid Shoes. Gentlemen's Dressing Gowns. Aprons of every variety. Nets for the Hair, a new and fashionable article. Children's and Infant's Frocks, in Silk, Cambric and Merino, plain and embroidered. Enchings in permanent Ink from classical designs. Three Drawings by Varley, in his best style, rarely to be met with even in Great Britain. Drawing by Paul Sandby Munn. Drawings of great merit by Amateur Artists. Oil Paintings. Picture of Uncle Tom and Eva, in Oil. "Fairies' Washewomen." Paintings on Ivory. Engravings of the Duchess of Sutherland and Lady Constance Gower, with Autographs attached, presented by the Duchess of Sutherland to the Bazaar. Engravings of Distinguished Men in Great Britain. Uncle Tom's Cabin Almanacs. Uncle Tom's Cabin Music, with beautiful illustrations. The first three numbers of Uncle Tom's Cabin, illustrated by Cruikshank. Works of Mr. J. J. Garth Wilkinson and Prof. De Morgan, with autograph notes to the reader attached, presented to the Bazaar by the Authors. Exquisite Bronze Statuettes by Cumberworth, "African Woman at the Fountain." Casts of Mrs. Chapman, by Foley. Articles in Porcelain, Terra Cotta, and en grec. A great variety of Papier Maché. Imitation of Fruit, very beautiful. Bog Oak Ornaments. The Round Towers of Ireland, in Bog Oak, as Paper weights, A model Toy Shop and an immense variety of Children's Toys of every description.

Every variety of De La Rue's Note Paper and Envelopes. Tourists Travelling Cases. Blotting Books and Pen wipers of an entirely new style. Valuable Autographs.

The LIBERTY BELL will be published on the morning of the 23d.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be clearly documented and supported by appropriate evidence. This includes receipts, invoices, and other relevant documents that can be used to verify the accuracy of the records.

In addition, the document highlights the need for regular audits and reviews. By conducting these checks frequently, any discrepancies or errors can be identified and corrected promptly. This helps to ensure the integrity and reliability of the financial data being recorded.

Furthermore, the document stresses the importance of transparency and accountability. All transactions should be recorded in a clear and concise manner, making it easy for anyone reviewing the records to understand the details of each entry. This level of transparency is essential for building trust and confidence in the financial reporting process.

Finally, the document notes that maintaining accurate records is not only a legal requirement but also a best practice for any organization. It provides a clear and reliable picture of the organization's financial health, which is crucial for making informed decisions and planning for the future.

We send out about 1000
of them to the Boston Ladies & think they do more for us than any species of advertisement. It would be well if the printers abroad before their boxes arrived, would mention in letters what were the most desirable articles sent, & what it were better to enumerate in the advertise ment. I have sifted in a few little pieces
bits that may amuse
you. I will try to find something to send you hereafter for your Advocate from our papers.
